Board's No. 97662-K.II.2/49. Office of the Board of Revenue(Civil Supplies),Chepauk, dated 15th Novr.1949

PRESS NOTE.

Instances of surreptitious use of rationed articles by establishments not authorised under the Madras Rationing Order 1947 for the preparation of edibles have come to the notice of the Government and the Board. It is considered undesirable, for the unauthorised establishments to make use of rationed articles and to sell preparations made out of them, especially during a period of actue food shortage. The Government have therefore issued a regulation under the Madras Rationing Order 1947 prohibiting any person in charge of an establishment other than an establishment* to which a ~~Rationing Order 1947~~, from preparing or offering for sale or supply, selling or attempting to sell or supply, any food made out of any rationed article, for consumption on the premises of the establishment or elsewhere. Any person who contravenes the above instructions is liable for prosecution under the Madras Rationing Order 1947.
